

The Ottawa Hospital Cancer Centre

Clinical Manager, Oncology

Ottawa, Canada

The Ottawa Hospital Cancer Centre is one of the largest Cancer Centres in Canada, providing quality cancer treatment and services to patients in Ottawa and Eastern Ontario. Every year, the Cancer Centre provides care to more than 8000 new patients and has over 100,000 patient visits for treatment, counseling and education. The Ottawa Hospital Cancer Program aims to provide each person affected by cancer world-class care, exceptional service and compassion, providing high quality cancer care ranging from prevention, cancer assessment, treatment, support, follow-up care, to end of life care.

As the Clinical Manager, Oncology you will provide strong strategic leadership and mentorship to the clinical team. Working with the staff and physicians, you will be responsible for the effective and efficient delivery of organized clinical and related services to the Hospital's oncology patients through the Department's health care team and support staff. You will work to ensure the professional development of Department staff and students, and to foster evidence based practice through the use of available research, research development, and evaluation. You will coordinate all of the members of the health care team on unit, and act as an advisor on matters related to your clinical area.

As an ideal candidate for the role, you are a Registered Nurse who possesses extensive experience in oncology, including ten or more years in a supervisory or managerial role. Described as a passionate and energetic manager, you are an innovative thinker with a strong understanding of the importance of clinical and professional development, and value quality patient care. You build strong working relationships with peers and staff, and foster an engaged and motivated workforce. Comfortable managing large staff complements, you will work to provide effective leadership through a significant period of growth for this important institution.

If you are interested in pursuing this leadership opportunity, please contact John Caminiti at 613-742-3202. To apply, please submit your CV and cover letter in confidence to john.caminiti@odgersberndtson.ca or online at www.odgersberndtson.ca/en/careers/10214.